Learning By Doing Leader Award

GUIDELINES

About the Award:

The Learning by Doing Leader Awards Program will recognize and reward outstanding accomplishments of educators in the Carnegie Learning classroom. This is an opportunity for colleagues to nominate and recognize their peers.

Learning by Doing Leader will:

- Receive an all-expense paid trip to the 2012 Carnegie Learning National Math Institute (valued at $2,000), July 11-14, 2012 in Nashville, TN and an honorary plaque
- Be recognized in the Carnegie Learning Newsletter and on the Carnegie Learning Resource Center

All educators nominated for the 2012 Learning by Doing Leader Award will receive a certificate of recognition.

How to Nominate your Colleagues:

To nominate your colleague(s), please complete the Nomination Packet. See below for requirements. Educators may nominate as many colleagues as they wish but must use one Nomination Packet per educator.

Eligibility Requirements - Educators Must Be:

- Nominated by a colleague in their school or district
- Currently teaching or supervising with Carnegie Learning curricula.
- Able to provide evidence of exemplary instructional data
- Maintaining a student-centered interactive Carnegie Learning classroom and/or computer lab
- Willing to participate in a three-to-five minute video about their experiences with Carnegie Learning
- Willing to speak to the press about their successes

REMEMBER, ALL MATERIALS MUST BE RECEIVED BY MONDAY, APRIL 9, 2012.
